

Innovation
University

Faculty of Physical Therapy

Advancing Movement, Restoring Health, and Preparing Future Leaders in Rehabilitation.

📍 10th OF RAMADAN CITY

iu.edu.eg

☎ 16856

About faculty of Physical Therapy

Faculty Overview

The Faculty of Physical Therapy at Innovation University provides high-quality education in the field of physical therapy, a rapidly evolving healthcare profession dedicated to improving mobility, restoring function, and enhancing quality of life.

clinical skills, and professional values that enable them to serve individuals and communities effectively. Through a comprehensive academic system that combines theoretical learning with practical training, students gain the competencies needed to succeed in diverse healthcare environments. The faculty places strong emphasis on clinical training, research, and innovation to ensure that graduates remain competitive and capable of responding to the evolving demands of modern healthcare systems.

LEARN,

Evolve,

Innovate

Mission

The Faculty of Physical Therapy at Innovation University is committed to preparing graduates with leadership skills in physical therapy practice through providing high-quality education, supporting scientific research, and building effective partnerships with local and international institution

Vision

To become a leading academic institution contributing to sustainable development in health-care through excellence in physical therapy education, research, and community service.

Academic Departments

The faculty includes several specialized departments that cover all major areas of physical therapy science and practice:

- ◆ Basic Science
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Surgery
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Internal medicine and geriatrics
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Woman Health
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Orthopedics and its surgeries
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Neurology and its surgeries
- ◆ Physical Therapy for Pediatrics and its surgeries

Undergraduate Program

- ◆ Bachelor of Physical Therapy (BSc. PT) is the main undergraduate program offered by the faculty.
- ◆ The program provides students with a strong academic foundation in medical sciences and rehabilitation techniques while emphasizing practical training and clinical exposure.

Program Structure

Program Duration: 5 Academic Years

Total Credits: 200 Credit Hours

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Physical Therapy

Internship: Mandatory clinical internship year after graduation

Practical Training

Clinical Training

Hands-on practice in hospitals and rehabilitation centers

Laboratory Training

Practical experience through advanced lab sessions

Workshops

Interactive workshops to enhance clinical skills

Supervised Practice

Professional guidance in real clinical environments

Clinical Training

Clinical training is integrated during the advanced years of study:

Third Year: Internal Medicine & Geriatrics, Cardiothoracic Surgery, Dermatology & Burns, Women's Health.

Fourth Year: Injury Rehabilitation, First Aid, Orthopedic Rehabilitation, Prosthetics & Splints, Sports Injury Rehabilitation.

Fifth Year: Neurological Rehabilitation and Pediatric Physical Therapy

Internship Program

After completing the academic program, students undertake a 12-month clinical internship equivalent to 1,728 training hours.

Training is conducted across several medical specialties including orthopedics, neurology, pediatrics, internal medicine, cardiology, obstetrics and gynecology, and general surgery.

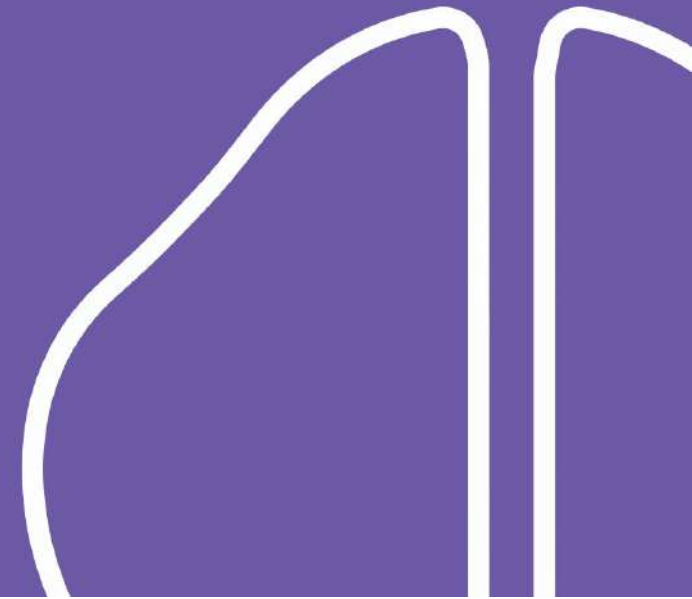

Training Partnerships

The faculty collaborates with hospitals affiliated with the Ministry of Health, Teaching Hospitals, Egyptian National Railways Hospitals, and Police Hospitals to provide students with diverse and comprehensive clinical and armed forces hospitals opportunities.

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the Faculty of Physical Therapy can pursue careers in multiple healthcare sectors including:

- Hospitals
- Specialized Clinics
- Rehabilitation Centers
- Child Development Centers
- Elderly Care Facilities
- Sports and Fitness Centers
- Academic and Research Institutions
- Community Health and Healthcare Industries

Innovation
University

Start Your Journey in Physical Therapy at Innovation University

APPLY NOW

16856